I am seeking the West Maui County Council seat for the 2004 election period. Since the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, tourism and local businesses were severely impacted. Our County is facing challenges that require full time attention. Now that my son has recently graduated from Lahainaluna High School and that I have recently retired from Kapalua Land Company, I can commit more of my life to serving the public again.

Qualifications:

Former:

West Maui Councilmember (1993-2001) served 8 years
Hawaii State Association of Counties – Maui County Rep. 6 years
National Association of Counties (NACO) Board Member 5 years
Member of the Lahaina Citizens Advisory Committee 1992
Board Member of Maui Economic Opportunity Inc.
Member of the West Maui Watershed Task Force

Education:

Attended Honokwai Elementary School, and finished my 7th and 8th grade at Kamehameha III School in Lahaina
Graduated: Lahainaluna High School – 1965
Attended Los Angeles City College-1966
Attended University of Hawaii – 1966, 1967

Military:

Served in the United States Army from 1967-1979
Was assigned to the Air Defense Command as an Electronic Technician
Achieved the rank of staff sergeant and has received the Army Commendation Medal twice.

Civilian job:

Worked as a Golf Professional: Amfac/Kaanapali Golf Courses 1979-1982
And also Kapalua Land Company 1982-2003(retired)
